Home Mission Sunday is next weekend and there will be a retiring collection after the Masses.

Cafod Cake Store Joanna Powaga writes, “As a Parish we have been supporting Cafod for years with a monthly direct debit of £55 and additional donations for emergencies. Money came from Sunday coffee mornings. We’ve managed to continue with our monthly donations but need more support from the parish as tragedies continue all over the world and have not stopped ie Afghanistan appeal. Our Cafod group are now running a stall with cakes and jams after the weekend Masses. Please support this worthy cause and enjoy some lovely home bakes at 50p per item or £2 for 5. Jams are £2 per jar.” Well done to everyone who generously supported this venture last weekend.

Guidelines for COVID safety The Bishops of England and Wales have issued guidance for the time ahead, emphasising the importance of continuing “to create a safe environment in places of worship.” For example, churches should continue to provide sanitiser at entrances and exits, continue the signing-in for acts of worship, no restriction on the numbers allowed for weddings and funerals other than determined by the size of the church and the safety of those attending. With the other Bishops, Bishop Terry now strongly recommends that we maintain the wearing of masks, social distancing, the service of stewards, and continue the high standard of sanitising the churches that we have so far employed. “When it is felt at local level that restrictions can be eased, this should be done gradually, taking into account the state of the spread of the virus and its effects on the local community, society in general and the NHS.”
