Father James is recovering under the care of his sister. He has other hospital procedures to come, so won't be back in the parish this weekend and probably not next weekend either, though he hopes to be back for the last weekend of the month.

Please keep him in your prayers I know he's very appreciative of your concern, but perhaps keep phone calls to a minimum, let him phone you.

Father James will have told you that after he has retired, the Bishop has asked me to run Pocklington as well as Market Weighton. This is going to mean changes for both parishes. The Bishop has directed that I only celebrate three Parish Masses in a weekend. So that should mean both parishes will keep a Sunday Mass, but that we need to have only one Mass on a Saturday evening. I think on a Sunday the Mass here will need to be at 9.00am, and the Mass at Market Weighton at 11.00am. I will keep the two Saturday Masses going for the next few weeks as I try to decide, what is best for the future. It's been suggested that we alternate, week by week or month by month, but I'm unconvinced that this is viable solution
