WEEKEND MASSES From next Saturday (6th September) Evening Mass 5.30pm at Pocklington. No Saturday Mass at Market Weighton Sunday Mass Pocklington 9.00am and Market Weighton 11.00am

Readers: just a couple of reminders: we don't start moving to the Lectern to read until the Collect is concluded, but for the Bidding Prayers please move to the Lectern as the congregation say "I believe in one Holy, Catholic,.... in the Creed. The reader remains at the Lectern till the priest has concluded the prayer.
The introduction to each reading is as given in the Lectionary, so its not necessary to say First Reading or Second Reading.

Market Weighton Tea and Chat

This Tuesday (2nd September) 10.30 in the small Hall.

Daily Mass Times and Confessions

I'm trying to work out the best times to provide a spread between our Churches and to fulfil your needs. But with other responsibilities and events this is not proving easy to be regular.

The Voice September issue in Church

Pocklington Car Park Borders many thanks are due to Humberside Community Payback for their work, they will be back this week. Thanks also to Marshall for the suggestion.

Pocklington Rosary for Peace a request has been made to pray a monthly Rosary for Peace after the 9.00 Mass on the first Sunday of the month. The Rosary will be offered 10/15 minutes after Mass has concluded. Shall we try this next Sunday (7th), the eve of the feast of Our Lady's Birthday.

Pocklington Extra-ordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, can we meet after the after next (13th/14th Sept). If any ministers from MW have moved to Mass at Pock, please also attend.

Bulletin during Covid we started emailing the Bulletin out as well as this be useful at Pocklington?

Schools return this week. Prayers for all returning and joining our School Communities

Tescos, please remember to put the Blue Tokens into the St. Mary's Tube.
